Hotel Promotion Policy

As of August 31, 2006, any hotel in Mendocino County who pays Transient Occupancy Tax (TOT) to the County of Mendocino, or a city within Mendocino County, is obligated to pay the Mendocino County Lodging Business Improvement District assessment (BID) (Mendocino County Chapter 5.140). The hotel is then granted the promotional benefits and privileges of the Mendocino County Tourism Commission (dba Visit Mendocino County).

A. A hotel (lodging establishment) is defined as being in good standing by being current with all TOT and BID payments. Current is defined as not being reported on the latest Treasurer-Tax Collector's Delinquent Report. This also includes operating under all required county and/or city licenses and permits.

Privileges and benefits of being in Good Standing include:

1. Eligible to have an owner or manager serve on the Board of Directors – if a director's hotel is found on the delinquent list, they shall have 90 days to become current with the Treasurer – Tax Collector.
2. Each lodging establishment in good standing shall have one vote in elections. Votes cannot be cast by proxy.
3. Advertising in all festival and event promotional materials
4. Co-op or other paid promotional materials and opportunities
5. Business and event listings on the Visit Mendocino website
6. Promotion to group travel operators
7. Various Travel Show sales opportunities
8. Media and travel writer engagement
9. Support of the MCTC staff

Any lodging establishment found to be out of compliance, based on the above requirements, will have all benefits and privileges revoked, until at such time as they are back in compliance. Compliance will be reported to MCTC by the County of Mendocino.
